THOS. G. HAMMONS

Republican Candidate For County Judge, Stands For Good Roads

To the Voters of Knox County:—

The election will soon be held, and may not have an opportunity to see you and talk with each and all of the voters of Knox County, and to thank them for giving me the nomination for County Judge, and to tell them what I stand for, and what I shall endeavor to do if elected as your County Judge. I have been all over the county and find in each and every part of the county there is important and necessary changes, and improvements in our roads and bridges. I find a great deal to do on each of the trunk roads of the county and on all cross, creek and branch roads. If I am elected Judge for the County, I shall continue to improve the trunk roads of the county and shall reach the cross and branch roads of the county, and help all alike. I find a number of new roads, and cross roads need to be opened up, and a number of extensions and changes to be made in the roads. I notice that there is a great deal of work necessary in joining our county roads to the main roads of Bell, Clay and Whitley, leading into Knox for the convenience and profit of the general public of Knox County, and I notice in a number of places where small bridges should be built. I believe in good roads, and in public improvements, but I believe in treating all of our citizens alike and giving a square deal to all. There are no public buildings put up, and I know by stopping the leaks and other extravagances in the county affairs, that I can do as much or more than the present administration, and reduce the taxes in the county. I am sure that this can be done with a poll tax of 10c and a county property tax of 10c on the $100.00. What we want to stop in our public affairs, is this waste and extravagance. We want to practice economy when handling the people's money, and see that the county get a dollar's worth of benefit for each dollar of taxes collected and paid out. I know that by using economy that we can do as much or more work on the roads and bridges of the county, and to pay other necessary expenses, as was done in the present administration, and at the same time reduce the taxes of the people of the county. Now as to the selection and appointment of road overseers or road agents. I expect to consult with the road hands in each district, and put a man, whom the people stand in that particular district, and a man who will give the people a square deal. I expect to instruct the road overseers to have the roads worked at such time when the farmers and people have their leisure times, and when it will least interfere with the making of their crops. Now as to the miners of the county, they are entitled to a square deal, and to proper consideration, the same as other people. Men who are accustomed to work in the mines, can not make good hands on the road, as a general rule, because they work inside, and are not accustomed to the heat and cold, and they have good jobs and good work in the mines and make good money, and we think that the County Judge and Fiscal Court should arrange to assess the miners a reasonable sum, and let them pay it in money, and let this money be used to build up the roads in their neighborhood. Many men who do not work in the mines would be glad to take employment of working on the roads for the pay. We think that better results would be obtained in this way than attempt to force the miners to leave the mines and work on the county roads, but in this connection, we want to give all a square deal.

Now there has been a great deal of confusion and complaint in regard to the Board of Supervisors. If I am elected County Judge, I expect to appoint three good citizens among the farmers, and men who know the value of farm land, and are acquainted with the farm lands of the county and one business man, or merchant, and one man who is interested in coal development of Knox County, in order that all of our people may be represented by experienced men, and I expect to instruct the Board of Supervisors to use discretion and judgment in raising people's property, and to first know what they are doing, before they accuse people of swearing falsely to their list, and have them called to town, and losing time and paying out money for expenses.

I am informed that the Board of Supervisors last year notified 2,300 citizens of Knox County to appear and show cause why their taxes should not be raised. The law allows the Clerk 50c each for issuing these notices, and the Sheriff 50c each for serving them, and this item of expense alone amounted to $2,300.00, besides the additional time consumed by the Board of Supervisors, making the extra expense in all about $2,500.00. Now if the taxes were a dollar on the Hundred, they would have to raise the property $250,000.00 to pay this expense and this expense comes off of the tax payer, and not only that, 2,300 men would have to leave their homes, lose their time and pay their expenses of coming to Barbourville, and in many instances have to employ lawyers to represent them. I expect to say to the Board of Supervisors, they should be certain that a man had improperly listed his property before they put the county to this expense, and the citizens to this trouble. What is the use to pay out a dollar and a quarter to get a dollar's worth of taxes, unless you merely want to help the Clerk and the Sheriff. In other words I want to see that every citizen is dealt fairly with, and not accused to making a false statement without there being good grounds for it. We want every tax payer to have a square deal. I am opposed to paying the road engineer except when he is actually engaged at work on our roads. I am not in favor of paying him when he is engaged in other duties and working for other people. I do not expect to appoint and pay out the county's money to political pets or to pets of any other sort. I shall expect the county to get a dollar's worth of benefit for each dollar of the taxes collected and paid out. I know by economy and proper management we can continue to maintain and improve the roads and bridges of the county, and reduce the taxes of the county, and if I am elected your County Judge, I expect to give every man a fair deal, without regard to his political or religious affiliations, and to favor a just and fair enforcement of the law, and at all times to temper justice with mercy, and I expect to stand for all those things that make for the upbuilding of our county, and her prosperity, for the betterment of our churches, and schools, and for those things that will uplift and upbuild our citizens, and add to their happiness, peace and prosperity. The charge has been made falsely, that I received my nomination unfairly, and that I was in a clique. I desire to say that I was not in any ring or clique, and did not use one dollar of money or one drop of whiskey to procure my nomination. I defeated three good men and I got about 300 majority over the man nearest to me. I made an honest and fair race in the primary and I expect to make such a race in this final election, and I want to thank all of the citizens who supported me in the Primary and should be glad to have the assistance of every citizen in the county in this race. I have not indulged in mudslinging in the past, and I do not expect to do so in the future, but I want all of the citizens in the county to carefully consider my claims, and if you think me worthy to be your County Judge I shall thank you for your support.

Thanking you all again for the interest you have shown in my race, I remain,

Respectfully yours,
THOMAS G. HAMMONS.

CARD

To the Voters of the City of Barbourville:—

I come to you asking you to stand by me in my race for Judge of the Barbourville Police Court. In the August primary there were no candidates for this office on the Republican ticket but myself, and the Democrats had no candidate, and up to the last few days we only had the two candidates.

I am a Republican, all my people are Republicans, they have always stood true to that party, my father was a soldier in the late Civil war, when the call came from Lincoln for volunteers, my father shouldered his musket and marched to the front, sacrificing his life's best days that, the glorious Stars and Stripes might proudly float over this land of Freedom. I married in a family who are all Republicans, and have done much for the Grand Old Republican Party.

It has been stated by some that the Republicans of Barbourville would not support me as the regular nominee of the party. I do not believe it, I do not doubt the Republicans of Barbourville, I have never doubted them. I am sure that when they go to the polls on November the 4th, that they will first stamp under the Old Log Cabin, and that is all that is necessary to vote for me.

I am confident that the Republican when he goes to cast his vote will not look to the right or to the left, until he has first stamped under the "CABIN" and when they have done this I am sure that I will be elected; and want to say to you now that if I am elected that I will fill that office with credit to all, and that I will make such an officer that you will not regret that you have cast your vote for me.

I have three opponents, one a Progressive, and the other two Independent Democrats, who will try to make you believe that they are your friend, but they are each "Wolves in Sheep's Clothing." Be aware.

Thanking you in advance for the hearty support that I am confident that I will receive, I am,
Your friend,
J. H. JARVIS.

$20,000 Judgment Affirmed

On Tuesday of last week the Court of Appeals of Kentucky affirmed the judgment of the Bell Circuit Court in the case of W. P. Cole's Adm., vs. Continental Coal Corporation, which was a case brought by W. P. Cole for the death of his son which occurred in the mines of the Continental Coal Corporation. Mr. Cole lives in this county and was represented in that suit by B. B. Golden, of the law firm of Golden & Lay. This is said to be the largest verdict ever sustained for the death of a person by the Court of Appeals in this State, except the case of Setzer vs. L. & N. R. Co., which case was also tried in the Bell Circuit Court, and was a judgment for $20,000, B. B. Golden representing the plaintiff, Setzer, in that case.

RESOLUTIONS

Barbourville, Ky., Oct. 11, 1913.

We, the Republicans of Knox County, assembled, represented by our Campaign Committee and many others persons of the good and loyal members of the Grand Old Party, at a meeting held on the above date, resolve as follows:

WHEREAS, we are highly in favor of fair elections, and of breaking away from the methods so much practiced in the past, wherein money and whiskey have been so freely, and at times, so boldly and notoriously used, and;

WHEREAS, our Circuit Judge of this Judicial District, has recently published a statement denouncing in strong terms the evil and crime of vote selling and vote buying and the use of whiskey and money in elections, and in which he forewarns all persons that such practices are a violation of the law and that they will be punished for future offenses of this character and calling on all the people to help the enforcement of this law, and;

WHEREAS, believing that the Republican Party in Knox County, through its organization can be of great help in an effort to eliminate these evils by taking a firm stand against them.

THEREFORE, be it resolved, by this Body that we do heartily and freely endorse the stand Judge F. D. Sampson, has taken in denouncing and opposing the use of whiskey and money in the coming November Election, and the buying and selling of votes; that this notice from Judge Sampson forewarning us shall be taken seriously, as we believe it was meant, and we pledge our unqualified support to him in the effort to eliminate these practices in the coming November election.

Many others called to see Senator James in the interest of the above named and other applicants for the position, there being about forty avowed applicants for the job.

Judge Hughes still remains a hot tip, and some of the "wise ones" contend that the race is "Hughes against the field."

SAD ACCIDENT

On last Saturday Marion Miles was accidentally struck by Passenger Train No 23, at WallSEND Bell County and was instantly killed, he was struck in the left side and near the back of the head, left shoulder and left hip which indicated that he was attempting to cross the track. He was taken to Pineville where he was dressed and placed in casket and sent here on Train No 24, at 11-48. Funeral services were held at the residence of his father on Main street Monday at 10 o'clock and he was interred in the City Cemetery. Marion Miles was born in Lee County Va., March 20, 1894; was a son of Mr. and Mrs. George Miles, he was a young man of energy and industry, working for the Barbourville Bottling works daily. He leaves a wife father and mother three brothers and three sister and host of friends to mourn his loss.

NOTICE

To the Tax-payers of Knox Co. The Tax for 1913 is long past due, and it won't be very long until some one else will have charge of the Sheriff's office, and my books must be square before that time.

Under the new Tax Law, the Sheriff has to make his final settlement in December, and in order to do this, he must advertise and sell all property on which the Tax is unpaid, on the 4 Monday in November, which I will be compelled by Law to do. I have made one round collecting over the County, and won't have time to make another. I don't want to be hard on you people, but if your tax is not paid by the last of November, I will be compelled to levy and advertise, and that will put you to a lot of unnecessary trouble and expense. So don't fail to get your receipts right away, and save 12 per cent penalty and other costs, which will be added December 1. Yours Truly,

S. H. JONES, Sheriff,
Knox County.

Dr. Leslie Logan and H. C. Faulkner jr (Bob) started Tuesday evening at 2 o'clock for Knoxville, Tenn. In an automobile. They reached Middlesboro, and had their supper before 6 o'clock and when heard from Wednesday they were headed for Knoxville and were speeding 25 miles an hour.

DRESS MAKING.

I have moved into the Rachel Messamore property, on Dishman Street. I am prepared to do all kinds of ladies dress making and fitting. All such work solicited. Oct 3-3t. Mrs. Barilla Sulfridge.

STOCK LAW.

A Poll will be opened in Precincts Nos. 10 (Blacks,) 11 (Grays,) 12 (Corbin) at the Regular November Election, 1913, to take the sense of the voters in said precincts. In precincts Nos. 11, and 12 the question will be, "For or against the running at large of Horses, Cattle, Sheep, Goats or Hogs, in said precinct," and in precinct No. 10, the question will be "For or against the Running at large of Cattle of any Species" in said precinct.

The question will be printed on the regular ballot in each of the above precincts under the head of "STOCK LAW" so you will need no other ballot to vote on this question.

2 RESCUE SHIPS LAND SURVIVORS

Devonian With 50, and Touraine
With 42 Volturina Passengers Arrive in Ports.

ANOTHER VESSEL NEARS N. Y.

Steamer Kronland of Red Star Line
Carrying 92 From Ill-Fated, Craft
Is Battling Fierce Gales in Effort to Reach Gotham.

New York, Oct. 15.—The steamship Kronland of the Red Star line, which is bringing into this port survivors from the ill-fated Volturina, has broken one of her crank shafts. A wireless dispatch received by the company's officials here stated that the accident is retarding the vessel's speed.

Liverpool, Oct. 15.—The Leyland line steamer Devonian, commanded by Captain Trant, arrived here, bringing 50 Volturina survivors.

Havre, Oct. 15.—La Touraine of the French line, second of the rescue ships which figured in the Volturina disaster to reach port, arrived at Havre with 42 survivors of the disaster on board.

On the forward deck of La Touraine when it arrived at the quay was a group of eight children from three to twelve years old, who had been rescued from the Volturina, and whose parents either had perished or were aboard other rescuing steamers.

The other children, with their mothers and 27 sturdy Polish peasants, with three of the crew of the Volturina, made up the total of 42 rescued by La Touraine.

No Women Survivors on Board.
Gravesend, Eng., Oct. 15.—There was not a woman among the 36 survivors of the Volturina brought to port here by the liner Minneapolis. All were men. Several of them charged the crew of the Volturina with acting with abominable cowardice.

The refugees will be taken to Southampton by the Uranium line, where they will be shipped to America on the Olympic. Some of the immigrants refused to sail. Many of them had been made penniless and their health shattered. Another refused the Uranium line's offer to sail for America on another ship, saying:

"Wild horses could not drag me toward America, with all its golden opportunity."

Ship Nearing New York.
New York, Oct. 15.—Carrying 74 of the passengers and 14 of the crew of the ill-starred Volturina, the steamship Kronland of the Red Star line is battling its way toward this port against northwesterly gales and heavy seas some 700 miles east of Sandy Hook.

Reports received at the offices of the International Mercantile Marine company, owners of the line, timed the expected arrival of the Kronland as tonight or tomorrow morning.

Captain Kriebohm of the Kronland sent a wireless message by way of Cape Race to the offices of his line here bearing in skeleton form the part played in the mid-ocean drama in which the Volturina met disaster. Thursday morning at nine o'clock, reported Captain Kriebohm, the Kronland's operator picked up the wireless call sent by the Carmania and the Kronland was steered immediately for the indicated spot.

Reports by Wireless.

"Carmania, Grosse Kurfuerst and Seydlitz standing by. Immensely high seas, strong gale. Went as near Volturina as safety permitted. Saw two-thirds of the ship burning like a furnace. Survivors were crowded on after part of steamer. Any delay fatal.

"Called out for volunteers and sent boat commanded by Fifth Officer Kummel. Sea too high, gale too strong. Impossible to try the Lyle guns.

"Later sent two boats under Second Officer Mansfield and Fifth Officer Kummel. They returned respectively with three and ten rescued men. As the fire on the Volturina kept away from the afterdeck, kept maneuvering near and sent three boats away, which made many trips. At nine o'clock at night the last boat alongside carried captain. Nobody was left on board.

Saved Eighty Persons.
"We had succeeded in taking off 80 persons and the captain's dog. Our boats were then replaced in davits and we proceeded full speed ahead."

The Volturina's officers rescued by the Kronland were Capt. F. Inch, Chief Engineer R. Dewar, Second Engineer J. Bellfield and Fifth Engineer M. Stegmiller, W. Sedden and C. H. Pennington, first and second wireless operators, and H. Ferleham, second steward. Among the passengers, apparently from the steerage, were three children, with parents missing.

Thaw's Next Probable Move.

Concord, N. H., Oct. 15.—If W. T. Jerome succeeds in getting a new indictment against Harry K. Thaw in New York, Thaw will demand that Gov. Feltner quash the present extradition proceedings. This course was decided upon at a conference held by the Matteawan fugitive with his counsel.

Funk Defamation Case Opens.
Chicago, Oct. 15.—The trial of the conspiracy case against Daniel D. Funk and Isaac Stiefel, charging them with an attempt to blackmail the name of Clarence S. Funk, opened in the criminal court before Judge Hugo Farn here.

HUERTA FOE SLAIN

BODY OF SENATOR, MISSING SINCE ARREST, FOUND NEAR MEXICO CITY.

WILSON SENDS WARNING

United States Will Keep Strict Account of Fate of Deputies, Is Official Message to Dictator of Southern Republic.

Washington, Oct. 15.—Telegrams from Charge O'Shaughnessy to the state department on Monday brought confirmation of the death of Senator Dominguez, whose body was found in the woods of the suburbs of the Mexican capital Saturday.

He was arrested upon Huerta's order in September for delivering a fiery speech in the Mexican senate. He disappeared soon after his arrest.

President Wilson and Secretary Bryan regard the assassination of Senator Dominguez as parallel with that of former President Madero. The news was astounding and dazed the president and secretary of state. Both believe that Senator Dominguez was murdered because of his political stand and, while they have no proof, they feel that Huerta is at the bottom of the murder.

A telegram received at the state department states that no harm has yet befallen the hundred deputies, all of whom still are in prison. The dispatch did not indicate a possibility of their being released any time, soon. Mr. O'Shaughnessy repeated his warning that the deputies stand in imminent danger of losing their lives because of their political faith and the fact that they oppose the administration of President Huerta.

Immediately after a conference between Secretary Bryan and President Wilson relative to Charge O'Shaughnessy's message it was announced at the White House that telegrams had been dispatched to both John Lind at Vera Cruz and Charge O'Shaughnessy at Mexico City to make representations to the Huerta government that the United States would look with displeasure upon any injury to the Mexican deputies now under arrest.

Germany's decision to dispatch a warship to Mexican waters attracted wide attention in official circles here. No intimation had been received here of Germany's intention and President Wilson was informed only by press dispatches of the action.

No formal comment was made on the incident, but it was apparent that the Washington government was not displeased. The sending of a German warship is in line with the policy of other European governments, which have had vessels cruising on the Mexican coasts from time to time during critical moments in Mexico.

President Huerta had 110 members of the chamber of deputies arrested on Friday and locked up in the penitentiary for signing resolutions of warning to him as the result of the disappearance on Thursday night of Dr. Belisario Dominguez, senator for Chiapas.

Five other deputies who signed the resolution were absent when a cordon of troops was thrown about the legislative building and several hundred soldiers invaded the chamber.

The arrests followed a demand by President Huerta that the chamber withdraw the resolution, which carried a threat that the deputies would abandon the capitol owing to an alleged lack of guarantees for their personal safety.

ATHLETICS WIN THE FLAG

Philadelphia Americans Are Now
Champion Baseball Players of the World—Score Is 3 to 1.

Polo Grounds, New York, Oct. 14.—The Athletics won the final game of the world series on Saturday by the score of 3 to 1, after a heart-breaking effort on the part of the Giants to stem the tide.

Plank for the Philadelphia team did noble work, while Mathewson played the game of his life, but could not save the day for his team.

The Philadelphia fans thus become the champions of the world, and incidentally get the largest share of the gate receipts from the five games which it took to settle the contest, the Phillies winning four, the Giants one.

One of the biggest crowds that ever witnessed a baseball game jammed the park here to see the mighty Mathewson for the slipping Giants and Plank for the battering determined Athletics, hith up in a pitchers' encounter in the fifth game of the world series.

Postpone Alleged Dynamiter's Case.

Indianapolis, Oct. 15.—The hearing of H. W. Jones, secretary of the Structural Iron Workers' union, arrested, charged with conspiracy in connection with the dynamiting campaign, was postponed until Nov. 5.

DEFEND MONEY BILL

ADMINISTRATION TAKES STAND AGAINST CRITICISM.

Wilson Tells Callers Convention Views
Do Not Represent the Public Sentiment.

Washington, Oct. 11.—New feelings of confidence in the currency reform bill were felt on Thursday following a concerted defense of the measure by Democratic senators, who denounced the criticisms of the bill made by bankers at the Boston convention of the American Bankers' association and against what was alleged to be an organized effort to hinder its consideration and passage.

A senate debate in which the bankers' criticisms came in for sharp answer from friends of the bill on the senate floor found its echo later in the day, when President Wilson made plain to callers his own view of the recent developments surrounding the bill.

The president let it be known that he did not think the views of the Boston bankers' convention, as they bore on the currency bill now before the senate, represented the general public sentiment of the country. In the president's view the attacks made on the bill by the Boston conference represented the activities of men whom he believed to be acting with sincerity, but who as individuals refused to yield their position of control of the country's financial system.

MILITANT FLEES FROM POLICE

Dragged From Hall as Suffragettes
With Benches and Chairs Severely Battle Officers.

London, Oct. 15.—After a fierce struggle the police arrested Miss Sylvia Pankhurst at Bow Neaths, in the east end of London, where she was making a speech. But when they got her outside the building, with the intention of placing her in a taxicab and rushing her to Holloway jail, the militants attacked the police so savagely they had to let her go and she escaped.

Miss Pankhurst, who has an uncompleted term of imprisonment to serve, was not recognized until she threw aside the disguise which enabled her to elude the police and enter the building. She had been speaking only a few minutes when police with drawn truncheons, entered the hall and made a rush for the platform.

The audience arose and chairs began to fly, the invaders being the objective point. Some of the people in the galleries even dropped benches on their heads.

The police succeeded in dragging Miss Pankhurst down to the floor of the house.

Concentrating the attack on the policemen who had the militant leader in their grasp, the women, with the assistance of several men, succeeded in tearing her from their grasp and she slipped away. Miss Zelle Emerson of Jackson, Mich., whose imprisonment caused such a furor several months ago, was one of those injured.

Evangelist Seeks Damages.

Cincinnati, Oct. 13.—Rev. George W. Elliott, a well-known evangelist, filed suit against the Foreign Missionary Society of America for slander. He demands $100,000 damages. Rev. Elliott alleged that he was called a thief.

12,728 Injured in Illinois.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 14.—Twelve thousand, seven hundred and twenty-eight accidents to workers in industrial fields—589 of them fatal, and of these only 183 were covered by the compensation act—were reported.

Apple Trees Blossom Again.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 14.—Continued warm weather here has brought forth another crop of apple blossoms in the orchard of A. G. Belinder, near here. All the trees had budded, blossomed and bore fruit this year.

T. L. WOODRUFF DIES

FORMER LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR OF N. Y. PASSES AWAY AFTER STROKE OF PARALYSIS.

HIS CAREER WAS UNIQUE

Came to Metropolis Poor Boy and Won Wealth and Political Fame by Own Efforts—Stricken While Making Speech.

New York, Oct. 14.—Former Lieut. Gov. Timothy L. Woodruff died in his apartment on Sunday.

His condition had been critical for nearly two weeks after having been stricken with paralysis while addressing a Progressive party rally in this city. He was fifty-five years old.

Mr. Woodruff came of good Connecticut stock, and arrived in New York in 1880 at the age of twenty-two years with no capital nor prospective backing other than diplomas from Yale and a business college and a clear cut purpose to apply himself to commercial life and watch for opportunities.

Seventeen years later he was lieutenant governor of New York, a partner in the house in which he first found employment at eight dollars a week, the head of an insurance company and of a patent medicine concern, director in various banking and industrial corporations and a leader in Republican politics.

The fortune he had acquired in this period was augmented in later years by the extension of his activities until they included real estate operations on a large scale, notably the promotion of the Garden City and Jamaica properties.

His political ambitions also grew, and in 1900 he had the backing of the New York state delegation for the vice-presidential nomination at the Republican national convention, in Philadelphia. Plans to that end brought him in touch with Senator Hanna of Ohio. The current ally was running toward Colonel Roosevelt.

"Hanna sent for me in Washington," said Woodruff afterwards, in telling the experience, "took me to his room, sat down and put his knees against mine. 'Timothy,' he said, 'I hear that you will be a candidate for vice-president.' I told him my friends had suggested it and that my own mind was open. 'You are too young,' he said. 'So far as that goes,' I replied, 'I am three months and twenty-two days older than Governor Roosevelt, and my son is a junior at Yale.' 'Well,' Senator Hanna answered, winking his right eye, 'you look too young.'"

The ambition that then possessed him never quite subsided. He aspired successively to become the party candidate for governor, to go to the United States senate and to enter the cabinet. Through this period he proved an excellent party manager.

He had been active in politics from 1885. In 1895 he was appointed park commissioner of Brooklyn and made his administration extremely popular by throwing open the parks at night for the poor. He attended all the party conventions, state and national.

He had homes in Brooklyn and Garden City, kept apartments in the Ritz-Carlton in Manhattan, and his Kill Kare Kamp of 1,000 acres in the Adirondacks was one of the finest estates there. His recreations were driving, automobilism, fishing and shooting, and he belonged to many social clubs.

nace of Fire.

Cardiff, Wales, Oct. 15.—More than 500 miners probably met death in the Universal colliery in the worst coal mine explosion in the history of Wales. Official figures furnished by the company said that there were 931 men in the mine and less than 400 of these had been rescued during the afternoon, while the interior of the pit was a raging furnace and hope had been practically abandoned for the entombed men.

Fire followed the explosion and many of the men who were carried out alive were so badly burned they will die.

From 700 to 900 men were at work in the pit when an explosion of coal dust with earthquake force rocked the surrounding country and shattered the interior of the shaft. All were imprisoned.

Fire which followed the blast was controlled but later burst out again. The mine is situated near Senghenyd in the heart of the mining district.

Heroic rescuers carried out 327 men, after risking their own lives by venturing into the fiery, poison-laden atmosphere of the mine.

700 Men in the Pit.

When the blast occurred representatives of the Lewis Merthyr Consolidated Colliery company, owners of the mine, said that the day shift of 799 men were in the pit.

So violent was the detonation that the country for miles around was shaken as though by an earthquake and from the severity of the shock it was feared that all the entombed men had been burned to death or been blown to bits, making the disaster the worst in the history of Wales.

Shortly after 8 o'clock, not long after the day shift had gone down into the pit, the blast occurred. Cardiff trembled from the shock, fire followed.

Fire Follows Explosion.

Fire followed the explosion and smoke rolled from the mouth of the mine. A rescue squad was formed and started into the mine, after the flames had died down. They reported that the shaft gearing had been destroyed. The connections between the fans and the interior of the pit were blown asunder, cutting off the supply of fresh air. Other pumps were rigged up, however, to furnish fresh air and blow out the poisonous fumes.

Soon the work of carrying out the survivors began. Many of them were unconscious. Some had their clothing blown off.

Families of the miners rushed to the mouth of the pit, frantic in their grief and anxiety and determined to sacrifice their own lives, if necessary, in an attempt to save their loved ones penned in the shaft.

Hundreds of other persons, led by curiosity or the desire to give aid, clustered about the pit mouth.

Doctors and Nurses on Scene.

Special trains and automobiles bearing rescue apparatus, medical supplies, doctors and nurses, sped to the scene. A first aid hospital and a temporary morgue were erected; side by side not far from the shaft opening.

The excitement grew to such extent that hundreds of constables were placed on duty around the head of the mine. Lines were formed to keep the grief-stricken relatives of the seven hundred penned up miners from danger. The voices of hundreds of women and children lifted up in lamentations, mingled with the shouts of the police and the leaders of the rescue squads.

When the call was given for volunteers to enter the mine at risk of their own lives, hundreds of miners dashed forward and begged to be allowed to join in the relief work. Only the strongest and most experienced were chosen.

A government investigation probably will follow. Owners of the mine began one. They expressed the belief that a blast had exploded the coal dust, which has a powerful explosive quality.

Panama Earthquake Continues.

Panama, Oct. 15.—Earthquake tremors continue. Thirty-one have been registered by the Ancon seismograph. Reports received indicate another severe shock in Los Santos province Saturday night. This disturbance extended as far as Panama City.

Art of Making Friends.

If you wish to make friends, your heart must be kind, your tongue gentle, your motives disinterested and you must cultivate the blessed faculty of responsiveness. These are the qualities that attract people. If you will pre-act a sunny responsiveness to the world you need not fear but that friends will flock to you. Having made friends, it rests with yourself to hold them fast by worth and sincerity. Believe in them with a loyalty that cannot be shaken by petty suspicions and the tongues of gossip.

Huerta Told Successor 'W...

as an Impertinence.

Western Newspaper Union News Service.
Havana.—Emetric Garza, President Huerta's former envoy to Washington, arrived on board the Espana en route to Paris, where he is to serve as Mexican consul general. He says, however, that he will remain here until Gen. Felix Diaz arrives on October 17, for the purpose of persuading him not to continue his journey to Mexico. He says he will convince him that conditions are not the same in Mexico as when he left it for Japan; that the holding of elections on October 26 will be impossible, and that Gen. Diaz's patriotic duty is to remain in Havana. Senor Garza, speaking of the impossibility of holding the elections, said that 17 states were now actually in rebellion.

Events rapidly are moving toward a crisis in the Mexican situation. President Wilson has decided not to recognize the man who is elected president of Mexico at the election which Gen. Huerta has called for October 26. After consultation with the cabinet instructions were sent to Nelson O'Shaughnessy, secretary and charge d'affaires in Mexico City, to notify the provisional president that recognition would be withheld because, in the judgment of this cabinet, the election on the 26th would not be "free and in accordance with the constitutional laws" of Mexico.

M. M. NEELY ELECTED.

Wheeling, W. Va.—In the special congressional election, held in the First West Virginia district, to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of John M. Davis, Democrat, who was appointed solicitor general of the United States by President Wilson, Maj. M. M. Neely, of Fairmont, a lawyer, Democrat, was elected by a plurality of between 3,500 and 3,700 over State Senator J. G. Hearne, of this city, the Republican nominee.

CRASHES INTO INTERURBAN.

Dallas, Texas.—Four persons were killed and more than 20 injured when a freight car loaded with cross ties, which broke from a train on a down-grade, crashed into an interurban passenger car near here. The collision occurred on a 50-foot trestle and demolished the front end of the passenger car, but without throwing it from the bridge.

SON PLEADS GUILTY.

New York.—Harry Mann, 28 years old, pleaded guilty to manslaughter in the second degree before Judge Foster. Mann was indicted for murder for stabbing to death his aged father.

FLAGS FLYING AT HALF MAST.

Havre.—With flags flying at half mast and a band playing a solemn air, La Touraine, of the French line, carrying 42 persons rescued from the burned steamer Volturina, emerged from the thick fog hanging around the coast. Half an hour later a group of motherless children, in charge of parents of lost babes, walked slowly down the gang plank, only to be hurried away and placed on trains for Amsterdam. The survivors bore traces of the stern ordeal they had passed through.

SPOND TO CALL FOR BETTER ROADS

IZENS THROUGHOUT STATE WILL AID ON OCTOBER 24-25
AS "GOOD ROADS" DAY.

DEMANDS FOR FUNDS MADE

Campaigns of Several Counties Already Arranged—Many Improvements
in Kentucky Are Needed.

Western Newspaper Union News Service.

Frankfort, Ky.—Commissioner of Roads R. G. Terrell is receiving responses to his communication to county road engineers which indicate that all over the state they intend to bring out the populace to work the roads October 24 and 25 in response to the proclamation of Gov. McCreary, calling on citizens to observe those days as "Good Roads" days. Henry county has arranged a campaign of nine speaking dates to arouse interest, and at the request of county authorities Assistant Highway Engineer R. H. Reese has been assigned to that county for the two days.

Graves county had already arranged for working the roads and Road Engineer J. E. Carman reported to Commissioner Terrell that all the stores in Mayfield except one will close those two days, and the proprietor of that one will give 15 per cent of his gross proceeds to the road fund.

As an example of what roads mean to counties with towns off the railroads, Assistant Highway Engineer M. D. Ross reported, after an investigation in Martin county, that it cost $5 the ton to haul freight from the railroad to Inez, the county seat, and that the construction of six miles of good road with a 5 per cent grade to the nearest station on the Norfolk & Western railroad would save exactly half the freight cost, or, computed in the number of tons handled last year, $9,000. The cost of construction would be between $1,000 and $1,500 the mile. The fiscal court, since his report, has ordered the work done.

E. J. Creech, road engineer of Wolfe, a mountain county of little wealth and comparative sparsely populated, is the first engineer to make a report since the 1912 law, creating that office, went into effect. He demands the equipment, which the law says he shall have, and goes into conditions exhaustively in the following report:

"As to the condition of our roads in May of this year and even now, it is awful, in my opinion, for a civilized people to have such roads, and thereby deprive themselves of great blessings.

"There is not even a single half mile of good dirt road in our county, much less at Telford, macadam or gravel road. I mean by a good road, one that has been properly laid out or located and built on scientific road principles, with proper form, easy grades, ample drainage, etc. Many of our roads, which our county has been attempting (only) to maintain for a number of years, have 10 to 20 per cent grades in places, with no drainage whatever provided, and to the stranger I think it must appear they were laid out and planned for great ditches in the hillsides, mud holes and for the purpose of getting them on land that could not be used for any other purpose rather than for public roads.

"Such a system alone is not applicable to the maintenance of improved roads. In fact, it is not applicable to any class of roads; it is unsound in principle, unjust in operation, wasteful in its practice and unsatisfactory in its results."

Amendments on Ballot.

Assistant Secretary of State Cecil H. Vansant sent out instructions to the county clerk to place on the November ballots the proposed constitutional amendments, relating to a reform in the tax system, and providing for working convict labor outside the prisons. The proposed amendments are to be printed on the ballots as follows: "Are you in favor of the proposed Constitutional amendment which will allow the employment of convict labor on the public roads and bridges?"

"Are you in favor of the proposed Constitutional amendment to Section 171 of the Constitution of Kentucky, which proposed amendment will allow the classification of property for taxation, and which provides that laws passed pursuant to said amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the people?"

Kentucky Gets Million and Half.

The Treasury Department has deposited in national banks $30,408,000 of government crop-maturing funds. It will put out about $19,500,000 in the next few weeks. A total of $1,579,000 has been placed in Kentucky.

Good Roads Men Assigned.

Commissioner of Roads R. G. Terrell is assigning his office force to work on Good Roads Days, October 24 and 25. R. H. Reese, who is overseeing the construction of a model road from Eminence to New Castle, will be in Henry county on those two days, the county authorities having requested him to remain, and J. T. Grimes will be in Calloway county, having considerable work laid out in the purchase for this month. The Governor's proclamation is being endorsed in all parts of state.

No Settlement of Tax Suits.

No progress was made in the negotiations between the railroads and state officials, looking to a compromise of the suits in federal court to enjoin the state from collecting tax on the amount of the increases made in their franchise assessments for 1912; and attorneys for the Cincinnati, New Orleans & Texas Pacific and the Chesapeake & Ohio, after leaving the office of Gov. McCreary, where the conference was held, declared that they had offered all they intended to. The board of valuation and assessment will meet October 20 to hear the railroads before making the assessments for 1913, when it is possible negotiations may be resumed.

Unless something results from that meeting, it is expected that negotiations will be dropped. Judge Cochran will fix the amount of assessments on which he thinks the roads should pay and will grant them a temporary injunction, restraining the collection of taxes on the balance of the assessments. Whether the board will then prosecute the case to a final hearing and appeal it, Judge Cochran already having declared the 1912 assessments void, or will allow the final order to be entered in the judgment stand, and proceed to re-assess the roads, is to be determined.

Attorneys for the Chesapeake & Ohio came to Frankfort to meet with the state officials, but did not go into conference with them. At a previous conference the road had offered to compromise on the basis of an assessment of $16,000,000, while the members of the state board, it is said, demanded $18,000,000. The road was assessed $25,000,000. Attorneys for the Illinois Central have arranged for a meeting here October 16 with the state officials. The road was assessed $14,000,000 on its franchise, but in its suit alleges that the total value of its lines in Kentucky is represented by the assessment of its tangible property and it owes no franchise tax.

Women Test Law.

The appellate court will decide this week whether or not women in this state can vote in the November election for candidates for county school superintendent. Chief Justice Hobson and Judges Turner and Settle heard the arguments in the case of Wallace M. Bartlett, of Lawrenceburg, against J. H. Cook, of Lawrenceburg, clerk of Anderson county. Circuit Judge Marshall has granted Bartlett a mandatory injunction compelling Cook to have printed separate ballots for women to use in Anderson county in casting their votes for candidates running for county school superintendent.

While the decision of the appellate court will be a construction of the act of 1912, giving women the right to vote in school elections, the conditions in Anderson county in the county school superintendent's race have aroused the women to make the test of the law, and the real plaintiff in the case is Mrs. Morris Bartlett, of Lawrenceburg.

Dr. Yager To Porto Rico.

President Wilson selected Dr. Arthur Yager, president emeritus of Georgetown College, Georgetown, Ky., for Governor of Porto Rico. Dr. Yager was born at Campbellsville fifty-one years ago, and was educated at Georgetown College, afterwards taking post-graduate work at Johns Hopkins University, where he was a classmate of President Wilson. Upon the completion of his course, he returned to Georgetown, where he became a member of the college faculty and married Miss Estelle Lewis, of Georgetown. He succeeded Dr. D. B. Gray, now secretary of the Baptist Board of Home Missions, as president of Georgetown College twelve years ago. He is an accomplished linguist and of the highest standing in religious and educational circles. Mrs. Yager and their three children will accompany him to Porto Rico.

Minister Price in Panama.

William Jennings Price, of Danville, Ky., the new American minister to Panama, was officially received by President Porras. The American minister in his address and the president in his reply referred at length to the approaching completion of the canal. Minister Price said: "Your land and people and my land and people are on the point of the pen and the tip of the tongue in the uttermost parts of the earth to-day. Your boundaries will mark a new highway of travel and traffic for countless legions of wayfarers of every color, creed and allegiance in all the ships of seven seas. The careful safeguarding of this valuable possession elicits the pride and loyalty of both of our countries." The president's response was in very friendly terms.

Big Verdict Reversed.

The $10,000 verdict awarded the estate of Reuben Harrod against the Louisville & Nashville Railway company in the Franklin Circuit Court, for the death of Harrod when his horse, frightened at a train, ran away on the Pleasville road and killed him, was reversed by the Court of Appeals and remanded for retrial.

Wins On Ballot Re-count.

L. T. Flannery was declared the Republican nominee for Sheriff of Lee county by the Court of Appeals, reversing the Lee Circuit Court. Flannery had a majority of four, and the County Board of Election Commissioners issued a certificate to him. Shanks contested and secured a re-count, which gave him the majority. The Court of Appeals held that Shanks's notice, served on Flannery, did not sufficiently specify the time and place of hearing the contest to comply with the primary law.

GAS DISCOVERED

PAYING QUANTITIES IN GRANT COUNTY, KENTUCKY, ALONG EAGLE CREEK.

Has Been Secret For Several Weeks—Discovery Made By Bubbles
in Creek.

Western Newspaper Union News Service.

Williamstown, Ky.—What is thought to be a discovery of natural gas in paying quantities, has been made on Eagle Creek, 10 miles west of here in this county. The discovery was made several weeks ago by Sam Hensley and his son Kalitus, of Holbrook, but was kept secret because the Hensleys wished to purchase the farm upon which the natural gas was located. They succeeded in doing this. Kalitus Hensley is in Cincinnati looking for an expert to go over the field and give his opinion as to whether there is evidence of a sufficient quantity of the natural gas to justify developing.

According to the story told by Mr. Hensley, the gas bubbles up in a line across the creek, and on the bank escapes in such quantities that it burns freely. A few days ago he built a rough oven in the sandy beach and succeeded in cooking some fish he had caught out of the stream. The gas which bubbles up in the stream can also be lighted, but burns for only a few moments at a time. He declares that enough of the natural gas is going to waste at the present time to supply a town of several thousand people.

U. D. OF C. ELECTION

Seventeenth Annual Convention Closed With Election of Officers.

Winchester, Ky.—The seventeenth annual convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy of the Kentucky division adjourned here after the delegates had been entertained with an elaborate luncheon at "The Pines," the historic old home of Gen. John S. Williams, Mrs. Mollie Williams Holloway, daughter of the noted commander, being the hostess for the occasion. Mrs. Andrew Sea, of the Albert Sidney Johnson chapter, of Louisville, was made honorary president of the division for life, and was given an ovation as she was escorted to a chair on the platform by Mrs. J. B. Camp, of Louisville, president of this chapter. The election of officers was held with the following result: President, Mrs. Mary Dowling Bond, of Lawrenceburg, to succeed Mrs. John Woodbury, of Louisville, who has faithfully served in that capacity for two years; vice president, Mrs. Thomas Smith, of Harrodsburg; second vice president, Mrs. Lucien Maltby, of Maysville; third vice president, Mrs. Laura Givens, of Cynthiana; custodian of crosses, Mrs. James M. Arnold, of Covington; chaplain, Mrs. Peter Thompson, of Newport; vice chaplain, Mrs. M. E. Reynolds, of Covington.

Invitations were extended by several chapters for the 1914 meeting, but the invitation from the Joseph H. Lewis Chapter, of Frankfort, which was heartily endorsed by the Governor and Mayor in behalf of the people, was unanimously accepted, a vote of thanks being tendered to the other chapters who extended invitations. The delegates expressed appreciation that Kentucky has a Confederate Governor.

PROMINENT COAL MAN DIES.

Madisonville, Ky.—Inkerman Bailey, sr., general manager of the Coll & Sunset Coal Cos., of this city, also general manager and heavy stockholder in a $175,000 coal company just organized in Muhlenberg county, died suddenly at his home in this city. Mr. Bailey was perhaps the best-posted coal man in Kentucky. Many years ago he became the manager of the Eureka Coal Co., of this city, and brought the production of the company up until it was the largest producer in the state.

WILL EMPLOY VISITING NURSE.

Carlisle, Ky.—To the end that tuberculosis may be reduced to the minimum, if not eradicated, the Health League, organized by local women, is taking steps to employ a visiting nurse to go over the city and county to report on cases of tuberculosis and conditions as well as suspected cases. The league is making a strenuous campaign against the disease.

$12,000 FOR MODEL ROADS.

Whitesburg, Ky.—Letcher fiscal court in session here appropriated $12,000 for building six miles of model roadway from May King to Kona, and constructing three steel bridges in this county, two across the Kentucky river, one at Croftsville and the third across Pine creek, near May King. Construction is to start immediately.

MANY DELEGATES ARE PRESENT.

Paducah, Ky.—About 1,000 delegates are in attendance at the meeting of the Kentucky Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., which began Tuesday. Many Paducah citizens are receiving delegates during the two days of the convention, and the hotels have sent out notices broadcast for traveling men to avoid the city these two days. The first degree was conferred Monday evening at the Kentucky, while the grand lodge degree was conferred upon a class of about 400 members Tuesday.

IMPROVEMENT IS SLIGHT

October Report of Commissioner of Agriculture Says Conditions Are Far Below the Average.

Lexington, Ky.—Slight improvement in agricultural conditions in Kentucky is noted in the October report of Commissioner of Agriculture J. W. Newman, but he reports conditions still far below the average, fall pasture short and the drought cutting down the acreage of wheat planted.

He admonishes farmers to take a lesson from the season, build silos and plant winter cover crops.

The report in part follows: "The condition of crops as of October 1 has improved somewhat during the month. The condition of corn is given as 70.7 per cent. Much of this corn is now going into shock, and the report of November 1 will show a final estimate of the crop.

"Since so much of the tobacco has been housed, the efforts this month were to find out the condition of the crop as far as housing was concerned. Seventy-one per cent of the dark tobacco is already in the house and is curing fairly well as indicated by a condition of 83 per cent. Seventy-two per cent of the burley tobacco is in warehouse and the condition is indicated as 82 per cent. The general impression gathered from crop correspondents is that the crop of tobacco will not be either a large one—65 per cent of a crop—or will it be one of extra quality. The crop of wheat has not been put in the ground as early as usual, only 53 per cent having been sown October 1. Indications are not for a large acreage of wheat for next year. Dry weather has interfered very materially with the sowing. The greater per cent of the rye crop has been sown, as is to be expected, but most of this will be plowed under in the spring after having been used for a cover crop. The condition of the garden is still poor, and no improved conditions can be expected this year over the condition as shown, which is 48 per cent.

APPROVE ROAD PROCLAMATION.

Lebanon, Ky.—A public meeting was held at the courthouse at which the recent proclamation of Gov. McCreary, calling on the citizens of each county in the state to work on the county roads October 24 and 25, was approved. At the close of the meeting the following resolutions were adopted:

"Resolved, That we approve the proclamation of the Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky calling on all the citizens of the state to work the county roads on the 24th and 25th of October.

"Resolved, That in order to organize the people so as to accomplish the greatest good that the Magistrates of each district in the county notify all overseers of county roads in their respective districts to meet at such places as may be designated on the 11th day of October, 1913, at 2 o'clock, and that each Magistrate direct the overseers to notify all citizens adjacent to the respective county roads to render service in the working of the roads, under the direction of the overseers on the above dates, under plans to be formulated by said Magistrates and overseers in compliance with the Governor's proclamation."

ADVERTISE GOOD ROAD DAYS.

Greenville, Ky.—Many citizens of Muhlenberg county met at the courthouse here to arrange for "Good Roads" day.

The Publicity Committee was appointed to advertise the "Good Roads" days proclaimed by Gov. McCreary for October 24 and 25. The Executive Committee was given absolute authority as to raising funds and organizing the county for the purpose of getting all citizens to work on the roads.

The people here are alive to the proposition as was evidenced when it was noticed that within thirty minutes from the time the mass meeting adjourned handbills and notices advertising the movement had been printed and circulated. It is thought mines and schools will be closed on the two days and it is expected great good will be accomplished.

OWNERS PETITION COMMISSION.

Lexington, Ky.—Messrs. J. O. Keene, of Lexington, owner of Keenland farm and trainer of Johnson N. Camden's running horses, and Fred A. Forsythe, of Harrodsburg, master of Fountain-blue stud and junior member of the racing firm of Chinn & Forsythe, have begun the circulation of a petition for the signatures of thoroughbred horse breeders, calling upon the Kentucky state racing commission to institute a rule which will have a tendency to more rapidly thin the maiden ranks and to greatly increase the number of winners each year, thereby giving better opportunities to the multitude of owners, more widely disseminating the purse offerings and injecting a sustaining element that is now lacking.

FISCAL COURT FIXES SALARIES.

Versailles, Ky.—At a meeting of the Woodford Fiscal court salaries of county officers for the ensuing terms were fixed as follows: County Judge, $1,000 per annum; county attorney, $720; superintendent of public schools, $500; superintendent of county poorhouse, $300. The court fixed $1,000 as the amount to be paid by the Kentucky Pipe Line Co. for crossing eight turnpikes and two dirt roads with its gas pipe line now being constructed through the county.

TAX COMMISSION

JUDGE DAVIS WILL CALL CON-FERENCE OF MEMBERS
THIS WEEK.

Report To Be in Hands of Members of the Legislature by the First December.

Western Newspaper Union News Service.

Louisville, Ky.—Judge W. O. Davis, of Versailles, chairman of the Kentucky state tax commission, was here to confer with other members of the commission on its work, and will issue a call for a meeting to be held either in Louisville or Frankfort. Judge Davis says he has heard from Prof. Carl Plehn, the tax expert employed to assist the commission, several times since he returned to his home in California, and that he expects the full report from him in a short time.

It is the purpose of Judge Davis and the commission to have its report ready by the first of December in order that each member of the general assembly elected in November can have a copy of it one month in advance of the session. By having an opportunity to carefully study the report of the commission the members of the legislature will be qualified to express an opinion on it, in the opinion of Judge Davis, early in the session, while on the other hand should the commission wait until the convening of the body before furnishing the members with a copy it would be late in the session before any action was taken on it, if at all. He is convinced that with the work that has been done, coupled with the expert advice of Prof. Plehn the commission will be able to revise the taxing system of the state that it will meet with the approval of a large majority of the people of Kentucky.

OPEN FIGHT ON FISCAL COURT.

Louisville, Ky.—Active work in behalf of the campaign for the substitution of a county commission for the Fiscal Court, was begun when headquarters were established at the Commercial Club. Announcement was made of the selection of William E. Riley as manager. With a force of stenographers and clerks, Mr. Riley installed himself at the new headquarters. Final plans were determined upon at a meeting of the Fiscal Court Committee.

According to Mr. Riley, a call has been issued for volunteer workers and responses are expected in a few days. An organization will be formed in order that representatives of the committee will be on hand election day at every polling place in every precinct. A publicity plan will feature the campaign, as information concerning the county government will not only be circulated through the newspapers, but in numerous folders and pamphlets. Politics, according to Mr. Riley, will not be entered into during the crusade.

BIBLE CAUSES FAMILY QUARREL.

Shelbyville, Ky.—During a division of the personal property of John W. Hall and his wife, Rosalinda Hall, between whom divorce proceedings are pending, a dispute arose over the ownership of the family Bible, both parties claiming it. Grover Hall, 20 years old, espoused his mother's claim to the book, it is said, with such ardor that he entirely lost sight of that portion of the fifth commandment which enjoins a child to honor his father, as well as his mother, and knocked his father down, the blow producing a black eye, which Mr. Hall will carry for days. The father promptly swore out a warrant for his son, who was tried in the County Court.

FISCAL COURT BUYS TURNPIKE.

Cadiz, Ky.—The Trigg County Fiscal Court, by a vote of 5 to 3, decided to buy the Cadiz, Canton and Hopkinsville turnpike and remove the tollgates. This pike is over twelve miles long. The county has had an option on it for a long time, and a committee was named to close the deal at once. It is hoped to have the tollgates removed within the next two weeks.

MEDICS MEET AT PARIS.

Paris, Ky.—The Kentucky Midland Medical Society held its semi-annual session here. A large number of physicians attended. The sessions were held in the courthouse, and at noon the visitors were entertained at luncheon by the Bourbon County Medical Society.

FLEMING COUNTY GETS BUSY.

Flemingsburg, Ky.—A mass meeting of citizens of Fleming county was held at the courthouse Saturday, October 11, to perfect plans for working the roads on October 24 and 25, the two days which have been designated by Gov. McCreary for that purpose.

CONDEMN FAIR ASSOCIATION.

Paducah, Ky.—The Ministerial Association has condemned the Paducah Fair Association for certain features at the annual fair, including the sale of beer, operation of games of chance, betting on the horse races and alleged immoral shows. The ministers have laid the complaint before the grand jury, which is in session. The directors of the Fair Association say that the betting on the races and games of chance are necessary for a successful fair.

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By E. O. SELLERS, Director of Evening Department, The Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.)

LESSON FOR OCTOBER 19.

REPORT OF THE SPIES.

LESSON TEXT—Numbers 13:1-3, 25-32. GOLDEN TEXT—"If God is for us, who is against us?" Rom. 8:31.

Kadesh Barnea marks the place of the Israelites' first great defeat. Long and bitterly did they regret that day of unbelief and not till a new generation was reared did the nation as such enter into the land of promise. The act of that day was the culmination of a whole train of unbelief, and truly they chose death rather than life. (Josh. 24:15.)

I. The Spies. vv. 1-3. God had commanded Israel to possess the land, now as a precautionary measure they went about to "investigate." This act, which was not a part of God's program, but by divine permission, was a reflection upon God's word about the character of the land. (See v. 19.) The eternal questions of man are to know the why and the how. God told Moses to send these men as a concession to their lack of faith, but it cost Israel forty added years of exile. The inheritance prepared for the faithful are always conditioned upon obedience. (Heb. 11:8, etc.) This act, commanded by God at the request of the people, was a means, an opportunity, whereby they discovered themselves.

A True Type.

II. The Majority Report, vv. 25-29. Though these spies spent forty days in conducting their investigation (a modern form of political graft), yet every step was a corroboration of God's word and the years of desolation which followed correspond to the number of days they were absent from the camp. The first or the affirmative part of their report was true, but the negative was so exaggerated as to turn the twelve tribes to an act which amounted to a catastrophe. This land and this report is such a true type of our Christian experience. They brought back the evidence of the truth of God's description of the land (Ex. 13:5 and Deut. 8:7-10) which was to be for them a resting place after their wilderness journey (Heb. 3:8-11, 14 and 4:8, 9). But these spies had seen other things, things to discourage, viz., men, strong men, entrenched men (v. 28). They saw those tribes God had said they would find (Ex. 13:5). They not only saw all of this but, like all unbelievers, they magnified their enemies. Today we see evil entrenched behind special privilege, we see the forces of evil that appear to us as giants and unbelief cries out, "Who is sufficient?"

III. The Minority Report, vv. 30-33. Majorities may rule but minorities are more frequently right, witness history. A great cry of despair (Ch. 14:1) greeted this report. Caleb still the people (v. 30) that they might get the other side of the story. His report agreed with the majority as to the desirability of possessing the land; indeed, we surmise it was Caleb and Joshua who brought their evidence with them (v. 23). Their report differed, however, in its conclusion. To the picture of the strength of those scattered throughout the land Caleb bluntly replied, "Let us go up at once and possess it; for we are well able to overcome it." (Cf. Rom. 8:37; Phil. 4:19.) Ten men looked upon man, the two saw behind man, God, a God who was able. The ten lost their lives even as they feared, whereas Caleb and Joshua lived to enjoy the fruits of their vision of faith. (Ch. 14:6-9, Josh. 15:14.) Unbelief cries, "We be not able," of course not, for "vain is the help of man," but belief, seeing God, in the words of Caleb cries out for immediate action. "Unbelief shuts itself out of promised blessings (Heb. 3:19), it always has and is still so doing. Unbelief exaggerates and contradicts.

Must Consider Entire Story.

IV. The Sequel, Ch. 14. No teacher can properly present this lesson without considering the entire story. The amazed people (14:1-4); the solemn protest of Joshua and Caleb (vv. 6-11) was met with threatened death and God interviewed to protect his faithful ones (Ps. 34:7). The enkindled anger of Jehovah (v. 11, 12) is met by that magnificent revelation of the beauty and strength of the character of Moses (vv. 13-19). He based his appeal upon the necessity of maintaining the honor of God's word and pleads for mercy and compassion. This appeal was answered by a gracious pardon for the people, but with it came a declaration that discipline was necessary.

We must remember that these Israelites had the benefit of the full revelation of the law, yet we see its insufficiency in producing a perfect character. Laws will not cure the ills of the body politic. Sinning men must enter into that fellowship with God that is the result of a life of obedience ere they can enter that delectable land of peace, plenty and power which lies before them. Failing in a knowledge of him and his resources, difficulties are magnified and our strength is minimized. To us, people as giants and ourselves as "nashoppers" is to court defeat.

The Bull Moose party was born about the 1st of August 1912.

Roosevelt was a candidate before the Republican National Convention. He sought Republican nomination on a Republican platform. The party had honored him time and again. He told us in many speeches of the greatness of this party and of its splendid achievement. It was the only party, so long as it gave to him a fat office. But just as soon as he was denied an office
he turned upon the party, that had made him. What for? It was to gratify his revenge against
Mr. Taft. Now who made up the leadership of this new party?

Disappointed office seekers,
Roosevelt down to the defeated candidate for Constable. While they formed a new party last year they succeeded in deceiving
many good and honest Republicans by claiming that they were still good Republicans.

They claimed fraud. While it may have been right to defeat
Mr. Taft, their attempt to destroy this party in order to be revenge on Mr. Taft cannot be excused.

Look over Knox County and see who were the leaders of this party last year—Men removed from Post Offices, Deputy collectors out of a job—Store Keepers and Gaugers, who had been removed for cause—Broken down politicians, this county had placed in office for years, who had lived off of this party all their lives, and when they could not live from the "PUBLIC CRIB" they turned against the party, and then there were others who knew they could not run successfully in the Republican Party joined the Bull Moose party—All of these disappointed politicians hoping to get at the "PUBLIC CRIB" through and by this new party, and in order to be revenge against the party which could not and would not give them a living the balance of their days, starts the new party
and call themselves "BULL MOOSE". They would be "BULL FROG" or "BULL BATS" just as quickly if they thought they would get them another office.
These men succeeded last year
in deceiving many good and true Republicans. The question for some time was—Would the Bull Moose party absorb the Republican Party and thereby destroy the party of Lincoln and other great and illustrious state men, or would the great majority of these great men return to the Old Party. This appeared to be a debatable question for some time. However the question is now settled. The Republican Party was founded upon the

the great and unyielding principle of Human Liberty, to free a race
of enslaved people, to preserve
this great Union, and to promote the peace, happiness and prosperity of our people.

The Bull Moose party was founded to promote the ambition
and hatred of disappointed politicians. No party can live when founded upon such unholy principles. Therefore the Bull Moose party must become a thing of the past. It has run its course.
The thinking, honest, patriotic men who were deceived, have seen their mistake and have returned by millions to the grand old party.

We have all observed its rapid decline. The Bull Moose carried Michigan last year by a large majority. There was an election held to elect a Governor in the same State last Spring.—When the Bull Moose, Republican and Democratic parties all had candidates in the field. The Republicans elected their man by a large majority. The Bull Moose candidates were a poor third.

This was the first test since the last November Election what a change in less than 6 months.
Soon after this election there was an election for Mayor in St.
Louis, where the Bull Moose carried the day in the last November election, but see the change.—The Republicans elected
the Mayor and out of more than 125 000 votes cast the "Bull Moose" did not get more than 4000.

There was an election held in Maine a few days ago. The Republicans were elected, and the Bull Moose ran a poor third.

The Republicans more than doubled their vote over last Fall,
and the Bull Moose lost more than half of theirs. In New York City last fall the Bull Moose got nearly 100,000 votes, but at a recent registration in that city,
it showed less than 2500 votes.
New Jersey went Bull Moose big last Fall. The other day in a primary the Bull Moose only got about 7000 votes out of more than 200,000 votes.

The "Bull Moose" got over 100,000 votes in the State of Kentucky last Fall. In the August Primary in got less than 8000 in the State. Bull Moose carried Whitley County last Fall, but in the recent Primary it got less than 100 votes, and the Republicans more than 3000 votes. Last Fall the Bull Moose got about 1300 votes in Knox County. At the recent primary its total vote was 505 votes. The Republicans last fall got 1500 votes. In the recent primary more than 2500
votes. And in the last primary the Republicans cast nearly three times as many votes as the Bull Moose and Democrats combined.
All informed men are conceding that the Bull Moose party is dead and a thing of the past.

The Bull Moose leaders admit this by their conduct. In Knox County they are not willing to try to stand alone. Their only way to make any showing at all
is to tie themselves to the Democratic party.

Mr. Voter, have you noticed that these Bull Moose politicians who in former years bemoaned
the Democratic party and told you to avoid it like you would small pox, are now in bed with the Democrats, and are trying to tie you to the Democratic Party,
and are proposing to "swap" you off to the Democrats in order to get the Democrats to vote for them. For what? For them to get another office, and nothing else. Will you be traded like sheep and hogs?

Some time before the August
Primary a few Bull Moose office seekers, and a few Democratic Politicians met at the Court House in Barbourville, and fixed up a slate, and entered into an agreement, whereby these Bull Moose office seekers pledged to the Democrats, the Bull Moose vote in exchange for the Democratic vote in Knox County, and these politicians agreed that the Bull Moose could see certain candidates for certain office, and the Democrats were to run candidates for the other County offices, and these politicians agreed to deliver the voters of the County to these politicians.

You talk about a "Slate", a ring, and a clique. This is the only clique, ring and slate that has been in this County this year.

You Mr. Voter who have always been a Republican, and who have voted and believed in the principles of the Republican Party, and which are as different from the principles of the Democratic Party as day is different from night, How do you like to be traded, and sold in a bunch
both sole and body, to the Democratic Party, by these office seekers, and you Mr. Democratic Voter, how do you like being sold to the Bull Moose politicians?
What is all this for, in order that a few men may get a political office. In order that a few discredited politicians, who now call themselves "Bull Mooses" may feed at the Public Crib for four years more. Can any free, Liberty Loving, self respecting, voter of this County permit himself to be swopped and traded on in any manner like this. Let every Republican, and every free Democrat come out to the Poles on November fourth, and put his stamp of disapproval on this bunch of cronic office seekers.

[TO BE CONTINUED NEXT WEEK.]

Why Don't Mr. Davis
Tell The Truth?

We understand that W. H. Davis,
the Bull Moose candidate for Sheriff, is circulating and paying one or two other fellows to ride over the country and circulate falsehood in regard to Sam Lewis killing one General Williams. Now the facts about this are these: Several years ago there lived on Brush Creek,
a fine old Baptist Preacher, by the name of Wesley Bays. We undertake to say that there never lived in Knox county a more honorable citizen than this man. He had a daughter who was deaf and dumb
and was unfortunate in other respects, and this General Williams took this deaf and dumb girl from her home, and carried her off into the mountains and finally into the Mountains of Tennessee. A warrant was issued for General Williams, and a lot of citizens followed him, and found him in the Mountains of Tennessee and he had this deaf and dumb girl tied to a tree, and he had mistreated this poor girl shamefully,
and Williams was brought back to Knox county, and tried by a jury and sent to the Penitentiary
for something like 10 or 12 years.
after he was convicted and before he went to the Penitentiary he stated that when he got out he was going to kill the witness, who testified for the Commonwealth
against him. He served his time out,
and on the day that he was released from the Penitentiary, he told the warden at the Penitentiary that he was coming back to Knox County to kill witness who swore against him, and then they could do what they pleased with him. One of the witnesses by the name of John Williams and who was related to this General Williams lived at Corbin Kentucky, and this General
Williams, as he comes back from the Penitentiary got off the train at Corbin, got him a Winchester rifle,
and stayed there two or three days
trying to get an opportunity to kill John Williams, but he didn't get the chance and left Corbin and walked through Grays and made the statements to some people at Grays,
that he was going to Brush Creek to kill these witnesses. He went on to Brush Creek, and called the brother of the deaf and dumb girl,
whom he had wronged, to the door
of his home, and without any warning, shot him down, and General Williams escaped to Whitley county, and Squire Burch issued a warrant for General Williams for shooting this young man, Bays,
and placing the warrant into the hands of Sam Lewis, who was an officer of Knox county, to go and arrest Williams. Lewis did go and attempt to arrest Williams, and Williams attempted to shoot Lewis
with this same Winchester rifle,
but the gun hung up and in that way it saved Lewis' life, and while Williams was trying to shoot Lewis, Lewis did shoot Williams. Lewis was indicted and the case was transferred from Whitley county to Laurel county, and Lewis was tried before a jury of Laurel county
and was acquitted within a few minutes after the jury received the case, and the facts as stated above

were brought out in that trial, and it was shown in that trial that the only thing that kept Lewis
from getting killed, was that Williams' gun hung up and failed to fire. Williams was laying for the officers, and would have killed
Lewis but for his gun hanging up.

Now Davis and some of his henchmen are going over the county and claiming that Lewis shot Williams while he was asleep. This is absolutely false, and Davis and some of his fellows who are hired to ride over the county and tell it, know it is false. Williams had the very Winchester rifle in his hands trying to shoot Lewis, with which he had shot young Bays.
Williams was a desperado. He had committed a terrible crime against the deaf and dumb girl,
and then he was undertaking to murder her brother and other people, who testified against him.
It took a brave man, to go and arrest a desperado like that, Sam
Lewis was an officer. The warrant was placed into his hands,
and he was ordered to arrest Williams. Many a man would have failed to go. Lewis tried to do his duty, and he almost lost his life. You might say his life was saved by Providence. Should he now be censured for doing his duty, and for killing Williams in order to save his own life? Don't you know if you elect Sam Lewis that it matters not how desperate a criminal is, Sam will go and get him. These lies have no effect on Brush Creek, where the people know all about these things.
Lewis and Davis have both lived for years on Brush Creek. The people on Brush Creek are for Lewis,
almost solidly, and against Davis.

The Democrats, 65 strong, have formed a Sam Lewis Club, and they will vote for Mr. Lewis because they know he is an honest man, and will make a good officer. We know that he will do his duty, and when a desperado
has to be arrested, Sam Lewis will not shirk his duty. He has been Deputy Sheriff here for years
and the people are all his friends.
We want the people to investigate these falsehoods that Sam
Lewis' opponents are circulating against him. Mr. Davis and these men who are paid a few dollars per day to ride over the county
and circulate these falsehoods
ought to be ashamed of themselves. Mr. Davis will find out when the election is over, how Sam Lewis stands on Brush Creek, and how he does not stand. We believe in the truth, fairness and honesty.

—[Citizen of Brush Creek.]

Some fellows are going around preaching purity, and jumping on the Republicans and charging them with corruption. Did you know that these Bull Moose candidates had 40 gallons of whiskey at Grays last Saturday, and a certain Preacher's check, paid for the Liquor, and he was one of the Bull Moose candidates who made a speech at Grays last Saturday denouncing wrong doing and politics. Brother Disney was there and made a speech. Brother Disney did you know anything about that liquor? If you will inquire, you can find out. For one ask John L. Botner. Let Mr. Botner deny that he went to Middleboro and got whiskey and took it to Grays to have it
at Brothers Disney, Blackburn and Stamper's speaking.

Gentlemen you ought to quit talking purity, or quit toasting liquor
or having it toated to a speaking.

The latest and best joke is, the one that Judge Stamper got off in his speech at Grays last Saturday.
Judge Stamper said in his speech
there, that both banks in Barbour-ville were against him, because he spent the County's money instead of keeping it in the Banks. That is a good one. The way we understand the matter, the county's money has been spent about a year before they get it. Many citizens in the County who hold claims and are unable to get them paid, no doubt, will know something about how long the money is spent before it is received, and the people whom
the county owes, would be very glad if there was some county funds somewhere. This is one fault that the people find to Judge Stamper's administration. He spends the money too long before he gets it,
and that's why the county is in debt all the time.

A Human Match Factory

The body contains phosphorus sufficient to make 483,000 matches. Phosphorus is one of fourteen elements composing the body—divided among bones, flesh, nervous system and other organs. The perfect health of body requires a perfect balance of the elements. These elements come from the food we eat—the stomach extracts and distributes them.

But if stomach is deranged—the balance of health is destroyed and the blood does not carry the proper elements to the different organs, and there is blood trouble—nerve trouble—heart trouble. Pain is the hungry cry of starved organs. Put the liver, stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition into a condition of health. That is just what is done by

Got a Frost

T. E. Sasser, the Democratic Candidate for County Attorney, was at Wilton, or was billed there, but failed to appear or at least no one turned out to hear him. Looks like Catron will be the winner, and that Sasser will not even get the entire strength of the ticket.

Preaching at Baptist Church.

Rev. G. S. Daugherty, of Lake Helen, Fla., will preach at the Baptist church Sunday morning and evening. All the members are expected to be there and everybody else has a cordial invitation to attend services commencing at 11:00 a. m. and 7:00 p. m.

Card of Thanks

We hereby tender our heartfelt thanks to the good citizens of Barbourville for their kindness in our sad bereavement, in the loss of son, Marion Miles, who came to his untimely death on Oct 11—1912. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Miles & Family.

Stands for his Party

Corbin, Ky., Aug. 15, 1913.
Mr. T. G. Hammon,
Sealt, Kentucky.

Dear Sir:—
I have your letter and will say new that I am ready to repeat my pledges made during my short campaign—that my hat was off and my services tendered to the VICTOR, which I now repeat—always.

I have been in the service of the party too long, and love its teaching to think of not supporting the NOMINEE now and always.

Your election is assured and I trust that you will make a Judge up to your promises and quite satisfactory to our citizens.

I will do my best for you any time and all the time and will make some of my feeble efforts in trying to speak for you whenever the time is ripe for us to wipe up the Earth with them.

Very truly,
S. H. KASH.

Wilton, KY., Oct 13, 1913
Editor of the Mountain Advocate:—

The Bull Moose tried to have a speaking here last Friday night, but it was a sure enough frost the Bull Moose. The voters almost solidly against Judge Hamper. Squire Hammons will get 5 to Stamper, one. We don't want any Bull Moose County Judge. The Bull Moose candidates were very much discouraged after their speaking here. They have been collecting money off of us for the last three years here, I mean the miners, and we cannot see what has been done with it. We haven't heard any report of it. It hasn't been used on the roads here. We shure are for Thos G. Hammons.

Republican Rally at Grays.

The Republicans held a large and enthusiastic rally at the K. of P. Hall, at Grays, on last Saturday night. Thomas G. Hammons, candidate for County Judge; W. W. Evans, candidate for County Superintendent; S. L. Lewis, candidate for Sheriff; and F. M. Rees, candidate for Surveyor; Dr. Pennington, Dr. Vicars, Prof. B. C. Lewis, Geo. Cox, and J. M. Robison, addressed the voters. There were about one hundred voters present, and all were very enthusiastic. Things look good for the Republican ticket at Grays. Dr. Pennington was elected Chairman and Dr. Vicars Secretary of the meeting. The Republican meeting was not like the Bull Moose meeting at Grays. The Republican meeting was made up of the voters of the Gray precinct, while the Bull Moose brought all their crowd from all over the county to Grays. The Bull Moose is dying here, and Grays will give a good majority for the Republican ticket. Many Democrats and Bull Moose will support the Republican ticket. The people here are beginning to see through the hypocrisy of the Bull Moose candidates. They were here preaching purity, and some of their henchmen were carrying the liquor. The Republican speaking was orderly and no liquor handed out. We think some of our Preacher friends ought to cut off this liquor business, or quit talking about other people.

A GRUESOME CRAFT

Strange craft have from time to time cast anchor in the calm waters of San Diego harbor, California, says a writer in the Wide World Magazine, but the strangest of all came to anchor when the Chinese ex-pirate, smuggler, slaver and rebel junk, Ning Po (Peaceful Wave), after a long voyage across the Pacific, finally swung with the tide on her cables. This ancient craft, with a dark and sanguinary record, and enveloped in the mystery of the Orient, is a hundred and sixty years old having been built in the year 1753. It is constructed of teak iron-wood ebony, and other Oriental woods. At present it is a floating historical museum, and contains as gruesome a collection of Chinese torture instruments, weapons and devices as could be wished for such as starving cages, beheading swords, bone breakers and the like. This ancient vessel was used in succession as a pirate, smuggler and slaver. She is equipped with several small cannons, mounted on tripods, that can be carried to any point on the ship. These curious pieces of ordnance are said to be 200 years old. The masts of the vessel are of iron-wood and local carpenters and mechanics were invited to come on board and try to penetrate them with augers and gimlets. The vessel's record is given as follows: 1753, built at Fu Chae, China; 1796, used in a revolt against Emperor Ker King (during this event over one hundred and fifty prisoners were beheaded at one time on the deck); 1806, seized for piracy and smuggling; 1814, set on fire; 1823 smuggling silk again resulted in its seizure; 1834, confiscated by Lord Napier for acting as a slave and was later captured by "Chinese Gordon" in the Taiping Rebellion and driven ashore in a typhoon in 1861; 1861: took part in the Battle of Nanking, 1911, captured by the rebels at the battle of Hanhow and in 1912, was once more wrecked by a typhoon. In the latter part of 1912 it was once more afloat and headed for the United States, where it arrived in the early part of 1913. It is difficult to say whether there is anywhere on the even seas another craft afloat with so long and varied a record as that possessed by the junk now lying in San Diego harbor.

Bull Moose Booze

It has not even been denied that one J. L. Botner is the Bull Moose headquarters for "Booze," we told the people last week that if we had misquoted or misrepresented anyone that the columns of the Advocate was open to them. Now this little bunch of Bull Mooses stand around on the corners and yell Clique, Ring, Thief and all such other things. They will put up the speel that they are honest and that they are making a Clean Race. My God! do you call the kind of dirty policies, you have, a clean race, why don't you tell the truth, why do you go about over the country telling the people that certain ones have been counted out, don't you know that every word of that is false? Don't you know that Sheriff Jones would not sign his name to an incorrect Return? Mr. Jones is a gentleman and an honest man, one who is not interested in this Race, he has no ax to grind, he has no kinsmen running for an office in this county, and if he did have he is too honest to make a false certificate, and there is Judge Stanfill that had no interest in the matter of canvassing the returns except to do his duty, he is a Democrat and takes no interest in the Republican Primaries or Conventions, and it has been told by some unscrupulous scoundrels that W. W. Byrley, who has served the people of Knox County, in the capacity of Jailor, Sheriff, Jury Commissioner, and is the present Master Commissioner of the Knox Circuit Court, that he has sold out and stolen the nomination from one Republican candidate and given it to another. Now anyone who has a thimble full of brains, that believes one word of that, is easily persuaded. Your bunch will not deal with the truth, if those to whom you are telling all these falsehoods were to come to the County Seat and take a look at the records and count the stubs in the ballot books from which the official ballots were torn, they would see at a glance that you were misrepresenting these gentlemen, and beside that, you will look over the list of election officers for the August primary, you will find that they are all good men both the Republicans and Democrats.

Yet you will still persist in telling all kinds of things that you do not yourself believe a word of and strut around and swear what a clean bunch you are, and how you can put on this kind of a face after carrying all that whiskey and beer up into the Bull Moose headquarters on Saturday night, September 20th, about 7:30 o'clock, at a time when the Electric Light plant was shut down for some purpose, we do not know what, we cannot see why you will do these things willfully and knowingly.

There is no such thing as a Ring or Clique. Why, you poor, ignorant ignoramus, you need a guardian appointed to look after you.

One of the speakers on the 22nd, said a Prayer, referring to W. W. Byrley, prayed a mock prayer, and in our opinion, that fellow will wish ere the 4th of November has come and gone that he had a thousand men like that stalwart Republican W. W. Byrley, standing behind him to give him a lift, for he sure will be buried beneath such an avalanche of votes that he will wish his name was S. L. Lewis instead of the name he wears.

Why don't the Bull Moose candidates tell the Truth? It was claimed their speaking at Grays last Saturday, that 500 Bull Moose registered in Barbourville. The truth is, and this is shown by the registration books, that the Bull Moose only registered 68 votes in the three wards of the city, and the Republicans registered 158. Nearly three to one.

East Corbin which is in Knox County, registered about 75 republicans, and 6 or 8 Bull Moose. Mr. Bull Moose is loosing his hide and hoofs, everywhere

Every one seems to think we'll have Frost early this Season.

Thos. G. Hammons attended church on Jeff's Creek Sunday.

Miss. Cora and Amounda Bargo were the guest of Miss Lillie Mill Sunday Night.

J. W. Hubbard and wife from Flat Lick were up on Stinking Creek mingling among relatives and friend last week.

It was communion day at the Shady Grove church, Sunday and a large crowd was present and all reports a fine day.

Uncle Tom Mills is a Candidate for magistrate in this district and is believed by the people that he will wipe up the nominee.

The Baptism of sister Mealia and Mary Jane Mills was nicely attended to by Brother Lark Mills Sunday mornig b-fore church hours.

All on Jeff's Creek will look for an enitauion to the wedding dianer when Isaac Miel and Mrs. Nellie Grubb Morris the wedding Day of the Porties is unknown at this writing.

Some People Who Are Honestly Dishonest

By NATHAN HASKELL DOLE

If all people were frankly and honestly dishonest it would be comparatively easy for everyone to get along.

The trouble is that people pretend to be honest and are dishonest as far as they dare to be. This unsettles both the buyers and the sellers of commodities. One does not know where one is at, to use the expressive slang of the day.

All is fair in hate and war. Business, as usually conducted, is war. I would propose that lessons be given in our high schools and business colleges in "Systematic Dishonesty." In time, then, the present uncertainty would be organized into a definite understanding that every dealer is what now he may or may not be—a foe worthy of your—well, your steal.

Coincident with this form of education there should in all fairness be a corresponding education in detecting dishonesty; for instance, there should be, by law, in every household scales on which all pieces of meat and other articles bought by weight must be tested. Of course the law should protect the public against adulterations deleterious to health. This introduces another problem, and as it concerns all the community, the defense must be also kept uniform, so that there may be no uncertainty. Certainty, assurance, whether positive or negative, is the great thing.

The sting in the title of this symposium, as expressed in its question, comes on the word "still." Historically it may be said that honesty has never been recognized in the diplomatic relations of the nations. Read Machiavelli and you discover that he seriously argues that the worst and most treacherous acts of "The Prince" are justified by the badness and treachery of his subjects.

War has always taken as its chief bases the most diabolical forms of dishonesty. What the church has taught to be crimes the advocates of war, however good churchmen they were, have upheld and praised and rewarded as the highest virtues.

If business is a kind of war, then, if war is justifiable between nations, the same principles, however immoral when tested by the Golden Rule, ought to be made the recognized principles in business.

There is no half-way between. Let us follow the example of the opponents of peace principles declare that as long as human nature is what it is there can be no possible cessation of war on earth, and as long as human nature is what it is there can be no universal practice of the foolish-wise dictum that "Honesty is the best policy."

But in heaven's name let us go one step farther and leave off from our coins and other public utterances the sickly sentimental cant, "In God we trust."

Let us cease boasting that we are a Christian nation; let us be what we are at heart—frankly, honestly, brutally barbarian. Let the ministers cease preaching righteousness on Sundays to men who are proposing on Monday to do the best they can to do their fellow-men in every possible way.

Men who are dishonest often declare that they would prefer to be honest if only their rivals were honest; but they must meet them on their own ground. The plan that I propose puts us all on the same level—a very low level, I am willing to admit, but fair to all, since all are or will be alike.

Retreat to Provide Shelter for Obscure

By Sophie K. Underwood, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Some day, in the days to come, when we are all busy making things over into what they ought to be instead of scrambling along trying to make the best of them as they ought not to be, some smart person with both eyes wide open for business, and with a heart full of genuine philanthropy is going to open a retreat.

He may select a desert island if all the desert islands are not working by that time, or he may select a nice, isolated mountain peak, for he has got to make it very sure that "just anybody" is not allowed and that this is a really, truly retreat, and that none save those qualified may come and enjoy its pleasures.

Now these are the people who are qualified for this retreat, and who will rush for it without waiting to pack a trunk as soon as it is open:

1. Unknown wives of well-known men.
2. Unknown husbands of well-known wives.
3. Daughters of professional beauties.
4. Sons of great poets (this will not be an overcrowded branch).
5. Brothers and sisters of infant prodigies.

Now you see the real purpose of this retreat. It is to provide comfort and happiness for those who have hitherto been overshadowed by the personalities of others. It will give them a chance to develop their own personalities without any odious comparisons between themselves and their illustrious relatives. They will come under assumed names, and after they have got back to a normal state, for most of them will be abnormal when they enter, they are to be helped to a life of their own. No more reflected glory—no more trailing after the band wagon for them. They are at last to be themselves, not appendages to others.

Length of Span of Human Life

By Robert Underwood, Indianapolis, Ind.

How long ought human beings to live? Reckoned on the basis that applies to other animals, the span of life ought to be at least twice what it now averages. According to Dr. Eugene Christian, "man is entitled by inheritance to live 200 years. Science, therefore, can boast only when it has carried him beyond this period."

That computation is based on the fact that virtually all kinds of animal life normally remain on earth about eight times the period required to reach maturity. Horses and cows attain full growth at about four years and live about thirty-two years. And so it is with various animals. So it is argued that man, who reaches maturity at about twenty-four or twenty-five years, should live to the ripe old age of two hundred or thereabouts. The difficulty seems to be that man does not live a normal life, as do most of the animals. Dr. Christian says the secret of longevity is pure air, pure food and pure living. He adds: "Man has vastly increased the productivity of the soil by the science of agriculture. He has almost conquered the air and carried the transfer of intelligence to its seeming limit. But he has forgotten himself! In fact, just to the extent that he has progressed in all the other sciences he has retrogressed in the science of preserving his own health and life."

Maybe autolats will learn some day that it is not safe to try to occupy a grade crossing at the same time as an express train.

TAFT'S TITLE CLEAR

Roosevelt the Man of Trickery at Chicago.

His Efforts, for His Own Interests, to Oust Delegates Regularly Chosen, Can Not Surely Have Been Forgotten.

It is not easy to follow the reasoning which interprets as a progressive victory—that is, a victory for the so-called Progressive party—the action of the New York Republicans in declaring for a new basis of representation for national conventions.

The Progressives did not originate the proposition. It has been in the minds of leading Republicans for years. Thomas C. Platt, M. S. Quay and Mark Hanna all favored it. They saw, as others did, that, with nothing to offer the presidential candidate on election day, the south had far too much to say in the choosing of the candidate. On that account, they urged on more than one occasion the reduction of southern representation in Republican conventions; and men who now call themselves Progressives gave them no support whatever.

That the proposition has more strength today than formerly is due almost wholly to the action of the Progressives last year in their efforts to tamper with the south's power in the Chicago convention in the interests of Mr. Roosevelt. The seats of delegates regularly chosen for Mr. Taft were contested upon the flimsiest pretenses, and strong influences exerted to substitute Roosevelt men. It was an industry, financed by the Roosevelt organization.

But it failed. It was so "raw"—so transparently repugnant to the code of fair dealing—that leading Roosevelt supporters on the national committee revolted. They would not have it; and, unable to secure the southern vote by fraud, Mr. Roosevelt was defeated for the Republican nomination.

Nor does the Progressive characterization of the southern states as "rotten boroughs" fit the case. In times past some southern delegates to Republican national conventions sold their votes for spot cash. But did no delegates from other sections—whether we consider Republican or Democratic conventions—ever sell their votes for promises of office? And, in morals strictly considered, what is the difference between the two transactions?

"Rotten" as the south may have been at other times, she was not "rotten" at Chicago last year, but, against much "rotten" temptation, stood firm for the instructions that had been given at the time her delegates were regularly chosen. And this fact entered into the assurance which Chairman Root gave to Mr. Taft in his speech of notification, that his title to the nomination was as clean as that of any candidate for the presidency the Republican party had ever presented to the country.

Republican Progressives Fading Away

Last year Mr. Roosevelt received 145,000 votes in New Jersey. This year the two contesting candidates for the Progressive gubernatorial nomination received a total of less than 8,000 votes. It is true that under a court ruling which declared that no participant in the Democratic or Republican primaries last year could this year vote the Progressive ticket, thousands of would-be Progressive voters were disqualified, because last year, before the third party was formed, they voted as Republicans. At the same time, this fact does not wholly account for the disappearance of 137,000 votes. In many precincts in the city of Trenton, for instance, not one Progressive vote was cast and more than one editorial expression in the New Jersey newspapers is to the effect that the fight will be between Stokes and Fielder. It is also asserted that the Progressive party is rapidly vanishing as a political factor in the state.

New Tariff Political Concoction.

So far, then, as the Democratic tariff being built on the lessons of experience and the advice of experts is concerned, it is further from being a scientific tariff than the one it is to supplant. It is a purely political concoction designed to redeem a platform pledge as a means of preserving party capital and intrinsically the party in power. The test of time alone will tell whether, even from this point of view, it is to be a success or failure.

Colonel Growing Conservative.

After noting that Colonel Roosevelt neither caught that huge mountain lion with his bare hands nor ate him raw, we were not greatly surprised to find that his pendulum has swung so far back toward conservatism that he refuses to discuss the Mexican situation on the mere ground that he doesn't know anything about it.—Columbus (O.) State Journal.

No Hope for the Future.

Not even the dreamers among the Progressives can hope to capture the house in 1914. Recent elections have shown the party is crumbling. It might be possible to elect a few Progressives, but it is doubtful whether the present number of members of that party in the house will be augmented. Neither Perkins nor Flinn could have anything to gain in such a fight, and it can hardly be expected that they are going to make further inroads into their fortunes just for the fun of the thing.

The ELECTRICAL WORLD

COLLECT DEPOSIT OF CARBON

Soot is of Fineness Desirable for Various Purposes—Work of Bruno Thieme of Berlin.

Wires are somewhat blackened when thrust into a candle or acetylene flame, but it appears that an electrified wire may collect a large deposit of carbon. Bruno Thieme of Berlin places in the flame two copper wires, one about half an inch above the other. These wires are electrodes of a battery current, and the carbon on the cathode—or negative—quickly forms a thick growth, branching out into the flame. The greatest effect is obtained with a current of 12 to 25 volts. Reversing the current transfers the carbon to the other wire, and with the current of an electric influence machine or induction coil there is sometimes a deposit at the anode. The soot being of a fineness making it desirable for various purposes, an apparatus for producing it continuously was devised. A long flame was formed by gas issuing from a series of holes in a horizontal tube, and a wire was passed through it with a piece of wire gauze suspended above. By means of an electro-magnetic relay the soot was automatically shaken off when it reached to the gauze and short circuited the current. By introducing copper or other salts between plate or wire electrodes, metallic deposits were obtained, similar to the electroplating from solutions, but usually at the anode.

son that we will one day shop by means of automatic vending machines.

The coin placed in the slot closes the motor circuit and remains in the contact jaws until a coin ejector, actuated at the end of a predetermined number of armature revolutions by a worm shaft driven by the motor, forcibly removes the coin and drops it into the box, thus stopping the motor. A means is also provided for the continuous operation of the fan by a coin magazine which automatically feeds the coins by the operation of a plunger as soon as the fan has turned the number of revolutions paid for by each coin.

CATCH RATS BY ELECTRICITY

Weight of Rodent's Body Causes Primary Circuit to Close, Hurling Little Animal Into Can.

The latest of the many forms of rat traps to have been devised is one constructed by Millis Knickerbocker of Electrical Rat Trap.

New Lenox, Ill. A wooden box with an incline cover is placed beside a deep tin can with perpendicular sides. At the end of the cover is a hinged platform held in place over the can by springs, says the Popular Electricity.

This platform is connected by a copper wire with one side of the primary circuit of an induction coil, and two dry batteries are located inside the box. A small hook to which bait is fastened is attached in front of the platform. The only way in which the rat can get to the attractive morsel is by way of running up the incline cover and onto the platform, which is immediately pressed downward by the weight of the rodent's body. The downward move of the platform to the shelf under it to which the other side of the primary circuit is attached, causes the primary circuit connection to be closed. The electrical current which is suddenly developed by the secondary winding is then sent into a pair of copper wire windings on the platform. This gives the rat a severe shock and huris it into the tin can, from which no rat can escape. The platform springs back into place just as soon as the rat leaves it.

ELECTRICITY TO KILL FLIES

Insects Strike Charged Wires and Fall Dead Into Trough—One Feature Is Its Cleanliness.

Few things are more significant of the earnestness of the campaign against the fly than the invention by an Arkansas man of an electric fly killer. A few years ago a piece of adhesive or poison paper was considered sufficient. This new method of execution consists of a tent-shaped wire frame with troughs at the bottom, the troughs forming the base. This frame is connected with an electric light socket, and the wires charged so that the instant a fly strikes them it is killed, and rolls down the incline into the trough. If this device is placed on the sill of an open window the slaughter of incoming insects will be tremendous. A good feature of this fly killer is its cleanliness, and there is none of the buzzing that forms an annoying accompaniment to some traps.

Electric Fly Killer.

NEW ELECTRIC BARBER POLE

By Day It Revolves and by Night It Is Illuminated by a Small Electric Lamp.

It is said that the striped barber pole originated in those good old days when every barber was supposed to be a surgeon. In days of old, when knights were bold, cuts, contusions, bruises and wounds were not at all infrequent. Then it was part of the barber's business to dress wounds. The striped pole served to guide the unfortunate one to the nearest barber-surgeon. Whether or not this skill in surgery helped when the razor slipped is not stated in history.

Only recently has the barber pole been electrified. By day it revolves and by night it is illuminated by a small electric lamp. The electric or revolving barber pole has for a middle section a glass cylinder that is two feet or more in height by about eight inches in diameter, this section being supported on an ornamental base or on a stout brass rod rising from the sidewalk. The glass section of the pole is surmounted by an ornamental cap.

Within the glass section of the pole is another cylinder made of a thin, light-weight, translucent material upon which are painted the traditional spiral stripes of red, white and blue, the familiar sign of the barber. This inner cylinder is pivoted top and bottom and made to revolve by means of a tiny electric motor attached at the top. Current is carried to this motor on a wire leading from an electric light fixture within the building and up out of sight inside the pole's base. Within the inner cylinder of the electric revolving barber pole are two incandescent electric lights by which the pole can be illuminated at night.

Why Old Backs Ache

What a pity that so many persons past middle age are worried with lame backs, aching kidneys, poor eyesight, sick headache, dizziness, gravel, dropsy or distressing urinary ills. Kidney weakness brings these discomforts in youth or age and is a dangerous thing to neglect, for it leads to Bright's disease and uric acid poisoning. Doan's Kidney Pills have brought new strength to thousands of lame backs—have rid thousands of annoying urinary trouble.

Gretna Green Ceremony. A young couple who arrived at Berwick the other Sunday were married after the Scottish fashion in a delightfully simple way.

They drove over the border into Scotland, and, stopping at a spot where two men were seated, the young man said that he and the lady wished to be married and that they could not adopt the conventional method, as it would be stopped directly the banns were put up.

The couple then formally took each other for man and wife before the two witnesses, and a document to that effect was produced and signed by the parties and the witnesses.

Signatures on Paintings. Experts rarely rely on signatures alone to determine the authenticity of an old painting, but trust rather to their knowledge of the painter's technique. Sometimes the painter's name is found in a conspicuous place, as, for instance, in Raphael's "Sponsalizio" at Milan.

Proud of having surpassed his master the youthful genius wrote on a fresco in the very center of the canvas, Raphael Urbinas.

Reynolds hardly ever signed his work. But upon the completion of the portrait of Mrs. Siddons as "The Tragic Muse," he wrote his name large on the gold embroidery of her dress. He was unable, he said, "to resist the temptation of sending my name to posterity on the hem of your garment."

A FOOD DRINK

Which Brings Daily Enjoyment.

A lady doctor writes: "Though busy hourly with my own affairs, I will not deny myself the pleasure of taking a few minutes to tell of my enjoyment daily obtained from my morning cup of Postum. It is a food beverage, not an irritant like coffee."

"I began to use Postum 8 years ago, not because I wanted to, but because coffee, which I dearly loved, made my nights long, weary periods to be dreaded and unfitting me for business during the day."

"On advice of a friend, I first tried Postum, making it carefully as suggested on the package. As I had always used 'cream and no sugar,' I mixed my Postum so. It looked good, was clear and fragrant, and it was a pleasure to see the cream color it as my Kentucky friend wanted her coffee to look—like a new saddle."

"Then I tasted it critically, for I had tried many 'substitutes' for coffee. I was pleased, yes, satisfied with my Postum in taste and effect, and am yet, being a constant user of it all these years. I continually assure my friends and acquaintances that they will like it in place of coffee, and receive benefit from its use. I have gained weight, can sleep and am not nervous."

Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Write for the little book, "The Road to Wellville."

Postum comes in two forms: Regular Postum—must be well boiled.

Instant Postum is a soluble powder. A teaspoonful dissolves quickly in a cup of hot water and, with cream and sugar, makes a delicious beverage instantly. Grocers sell both kinds.

"There's a reason" for Postum.

Gathered Smiles

CIRCUMSTANCES.

She was only a small girl, but even little people can be naughty sometimes, and this was one of the occasions when Mabel had kicked over the traces.

Naturally, mamma was terribly angry, and Mabel was dispatched to the regions aloft where, in her mother's bedroom, she was bidden to sit upon a certain chair, pending further instructions from headquarters.

The particular instructions were long delayed, from Mabel's point of view, and after half an hour she ventured to query in childish treble:

"Mamma, may I come down now? I promise I'll be good."

Headquarters was still huffy and waffled up the stairs the reply:

"No, you sit just where you are till I call you."

"All right," came in sing-song tone from the bedroom, "all right, mamma, only I'm sitting on your best hat!"—Gulf States Presbyterian.

UNDERWOOD IS TARGET

HOBSON CALLS LEADER "DUM-MY" AND CLASH FOLLOWS.

"Does Any One Else Here Believe It?" Cries Accused Man and Congressmen Shout "No!"

Washington, Oct. 15.—Representative Hobson launched a hot attack against the senatorial campaign of Democratic Leader Underwood in the House Monday when he charged that his support of Underwood's presidential candidacy at the Baltimore convention was obtained under "false pretenses." Hobson had defended himself against charges by Representative Donovan of Connecticut of neglect of his official duties, when he branched off into an attack on Underwood. Hobson charged that Underwood in the recent presidential fight had the support of Thomas F. Ryan and Wall Street and liquor interests, and had obtained the backing of his home state through "false pretenses." Underwood demanded that Hobson furnish proof of his charges. Hobson admitted that his statement was based on the testimony of Senator Bankhead before the senate campaign fund investigating committee that Thomas F. Ryan had contributed a large sum of Underwood's presidential campaign fund.

"Now, is there any other reason the gentleman has?" demanded Underwood, "for saying that I am a tool and a dummy?"

"I think my friend is of the highest moral character," replied Hobson, "but I think he is the type of man that allows outside and perhaps improper interests to sit in and play in the game."

"What is the basis of your charge that I am a tool of the liquor interests?" demanded Underwood.

"I know the liquor interests tried to beat me in my district," replied Hobson, "and I believe they now are supporting you. 'If you were used as a dummy once you might be again.' 'No interest or set of men ever dominated me,' replied Underwood amid applause of the house.

JUST THROWING OUT A HINT

If Charity Fund Was to Be Given to the Needy, He Could Use Part of It.

The children of a Boston Sunday school class had contributed their pennies for weeks to a fund which was to be devoted to charitable purposes, and on the day when they were to decide on the matter of its distribution each child was called upon to express an opinion as to how it should be spent.

The teacher explained to them that there were several charities which would be glad to receive the fund, either in Boston or among the foreign missions. She had impressed upon them, however, that the money might be spent to good advantage among the sick and needy children of their own parish. Several bright speeches on the subject had been made, when one seven-year-old boy arose and, evidently bearing in mind the teacher's remarks about charity beginning at home, said:

"I want you to know that I have put a good many pennies in that box—" and then, after some delay—"and I've got a terrible cold myself."—Boston Post.

Finance as She Is Wrote.

To add to troubles of the Wall street man forced to spend his summer in the city comes the necessity of employing a substitute stenographer in vacation season. Wall street dictation is hard enough for the regular stenographer; the substitute finds it next to impossible.

The employer of one of the substitutes not long ago tried to be particularly careful and distinct in his dictation. Nevertheless, "comptroller of the currency" emerged as "comptroller of the corn belt." A remark about the "drought district in Kansas" was interpreted as "grouch district in Kansas."

Reverting to money matters again, the employer talked about taking bullion into the Bank of England, and the copy showed that bouillon soup had been taken into the bank.

PIMPLES ALL OVER FACE

1413 E. Genessee Ave., Saginaw, Mich.—"Cuticura Soap and Ointment cured me of a very bad disease of the face without leaving a scar. Pimples broke out all over my face, red and large. They festered and came to a head. They itched and burned and caused me to scratch them and make sores. They said they were seed warts. At night I was restless from itching. When the barber would shave my face would bleed terribly. Then scabs would form afterwards, then they would drop off and the so-called seed warts would come back again. They were on my face for about nine months and the trouble caused disfigurement while it lasted.

"One day I read in the paper of the Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I received a free sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and it was so much value to me that I bought a cake of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment at the drug store. I used both according to directions. In about ten days my face began to heal up. My face is now clear of the warts and not a scar is left." (Signed) LeRoy C. O'Brien, May 12, 1913.

No More Whiskey and Money In Election

Barbourville, Ky.,
Sept. 29, 1913.

To the citizens of Knox County
On the first Monday in November it being the first day of the regular November term of the Knox Circuit Court I as Judge of said court will instruct the Grand Jury to investigate all violations of the election law and to indict all guilty persons. I have given warning heretofore. And I take this method of reaching the county.

All fair minded persons will agree that vote buying and vote selling should be stopped. There is no better time to begin than now. I do not think that advantage should be taken of any one. All should have notice of the purpose and intention of the court and officers to enforce the law against these crimes,
for the reason that it has been a common practice to use both money and whiskey in elections. Many good people have countenanced it.
In fact many thought it impossible
to make a race without large quantities of each. This notion is not only wrong in law, but in morals.
Many honest, well qualified citizens of the county do not expect to be elected to office; because they have not the necessary funds. Wealth is not a legal qualification for office
and this barrier should be removed.
This can be done if the good citizens
of the county will assist in the work.
The court invites the co-operation
of all those who love law and order to the end that this practice may be stopped.

I am writing this letter to fore-warn all persons, so that no one can say that advantage has been taken of him.

If any person, after this warning,
deliberately violates the law against vote buying or vote selling he cannot claim that he has been taken by surprise, nor can he expect mercy.

No one should be deceived by the idea that certain officers or persons in the county can or will protect him against indictment or prosecution. This will be impossible. If one Grand Jury does not perform its duty another will be immediately elected. And if a trial jury can not be had in this county, the court may send to another county. There will be no protection for any one who violates this law.

The Grand Jury at the next term will be especially instructed to investigate and indict all persons using or furnishing either money or whiskey in the election.

The court will instruct the Clerk
to issue subpoenas for all candidates on each ticket, and all election officers in each precinct, and all workers for the various candidates, and for all bankers or persons who furnish money to appear before the Grand Jury at its November term,
and these names will be furnished to the Clerk in ample time to have these persons summoned. The person who handles money will have to tell the Grand Jury about it. The whole November election will be thoroughly investigated.

A league selected from the best citizenship of the county should be organized to promote and help secure fair elections, and I hope that such will be done at once to aid in this work. I am urging the people in each county in this District to make singular organizations.

No person who may secure his election by either the use of money
or whiskey can qualify as an officer.
Under our statutes conviction of the crime of either buying or selling a vote not only disqualifies one from voting thereafter, but also disqualifies him from holding any office of profit or trust, for all time to come.

Let me appeal to you in the interest of the young men of this County

who have prepared and are preparing themselves for responsible positions in life; those who expect or desire to seek office. In the interest of all that makes for better government, lend a hand and let the law against the use of money and whiskey in elections be enforced.

Respectfully,
F. D. Sampson,
Judge 34th, Judicial District.

READ P. BLACK

Officially Honored; Makes Splendid Record as County Clerk

Barbourville, Ky., July 28, 1913.

To Whom it may Concern:—

After a thorough examination of all the business transacted through the office of the County Court Clerk,
I, Phillip D. Arnold, Assistant State Inspector and Examiner, wish to state for the benefit of the citizens of Knox county that in all my work
in like offices throughout the State,
I found the records of Read P. Black in a most satisfactory shape with an overpaid balance to the State of $40.00. It is always better to keep ahead with the Commonwealth
than for an official to find the clerk
behind, as is often the case, in paying the State its legal fees, and when those fees are due instead of the State at much expense being compelled to "show you" your mistakes, etc.

Such a record as the one County Court Clerk Black has made and it is the very best official record made by any clerk throughout the State
whose books and official acts I have examined, speaks well for the painstaking, laborious and efficient management of his office, and deserves my official approval.

PHILIP D. ARNOLD,
Asst. State Inspector
and Examiner.

Close Proximity.

May we venture to offer the hint
that the phrase "close proximity,"
which seems to have acquired a certain vogue, is slightly tautological?

CARD

To the Citizens of Knox County:

Having heard that is is being circulated over the county that my father, Sam H. Black, and his folks and friends intend belting the Republican ticket this fall, I desire to say to the citizens of the county
that these statements are incorrect and unjust to us. We entered the race as Republicans, expecting our opponents, if we won the nomination to support us and help us win
in November; or if we did not win, expecting to support the one that did win and help him gain the election in November. This we understand to be the purpose and intention of all who enter primaries and the honorable thing to do; and this we propose to do.

While we consider that some unjust and improper things were done
as is usually the case in primary elections, we consider that Sam
Lewis, the man who won the nomination for Sheriff, made a manly and honorable race and deserves
the nomination and will make the county a good official; and we are
for him and mean to do what we can for him as well as for the rest of the ticket.

I also wish to say that we made a manly and honorable race, saying nothing hard of any one, nor seeking no unjust advantage of any one.
We received our support along these lines, and desire to thank our friends for their loyal support.

We believe the party has a splendid ticket and that every man on it ought to be elected and will be elected this fall.

Yours respectfully,
JAMES T. BLACK.

Favored Negro Melodies.

Gladstone was not merely a rapt listener to the Christy minstrels when they were in London many years ago.
Lord Malmesbury's diary contains this passage: "Gladstone, who was always fond of music, is now quite enthusiastic about negro melodies,
singing them with the greatest spirit
and enjoyment, never leaving out a verse, and evidently preferring such as 'Camp Town Races'."
